NURSES ARE NOW
WANTED VERY
MUCHAll Who Can Do So Are Requested to Report for Duty This Morning.

The relief committee is now badly in need of nurses to attend the fever cases which have developed during the past two days. There is ample money on hand to pay for nurses, but the supply of the latter seems to be limited and unless something is done some of the patients may suffer for want of attention.

All persons who will nurse yellow fever cases, either voluntarily or for pay, are requested to report to Mr. D. Hale Wilson at his office after 9 o'clock this morning. A part of them can be put to work immediately and the others will be registered and called upon as soon as their services are required.

The situation is urgent and it is to be hoped that everyone who can do so will report to Mr. Wilson at once.

Don't let the little ones suffer from eczema or other torturing skin diseases. No need for Dr. Doan's Ointment cures. Can't harm the most delicate skin. At any drug store. 59 cents.

A CASE WHERE THE PRESENTS GOT MIXED

A few days ago a Pensacola young man accompanied by his sister, visited a store to purchase a gift for his sweetheart as a birthday present. Thinking a good book or a box of bonbons too common, he decided to give her a fine pair of gloves, and made his purchase accordingly, while his sister bought herself a pair of fancy stockings. Both gloves and stockings were wrapped in similar packages, in some way the bundles became mixed, and the young man, not knowing the mistake, sent his sweetheart the stockings accompanied by the following note:

"Dearest:—I hope you will enjoy this little present, instead of something foolish. Oh, how I wish no other hands than mine would ever touch them after you put them on, but I know, dear, such a wish is vain. A score of fellows may touch them when I am not by your side, and other eyes than mine may see them on the streets and at parties. I bought the largest pair I could get and if they are too long you can let them wrinkle down. A great many of the girls wear them slipped down a little. Always wear them at parties; they are likely to soil them, but you can clean them, dear, with benzine, if you leave them on till dry. I hope they are not too small. Blow in them before you put them on.

"From your loving—"
The engagement is off, and if the unfortunate young man ever shows his mug in that end of town he will get it knocked off by the ham-like fist of "Dearest One's" father.

Moments ago look inside a box before you send it away.

Impossible to foresee an accident. Not impossible to be prepared for it. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Monarch over pain.

The Silt in the Coat Lapel.

A unique and beautiful custom among the orthodox Jews is directly responsible for the angular silt in the lapel of the modern coat. The Jew when death visits his household takes a knife and, cutting the lapel, murmurs in Yiddish, "O God, I accept thy judgment." This custom has come down from antiquity and is known as "kren" (reading the garment). The cutting of "kren" is associated with such solemn and religious obligations that many a stern Hebrew father, as a punishment for a son or daughter who marries out of the faith, will rend his garment as a token of the death of such a child. The act is emblematic of the profoundest grief, but also has its comforting influence, for it accepts with the resignation of the typical religious Jew the will of the Almighty.

A Story With a Moral.

A prominent New York banker was dilating on the dangers of deceit. By way of illustration, he told of a society woman who saw in a jeweler's window a collar of pearls that she wanted. She inquired the price and was told $6,000. She gave her check for $3,000, saying she would send her husband to see the pearls, but the jeweler was to tell him they cost only $3,000. The storekeeper was familiar with that sort of game and agreed. The husband came to see the pearls, and that evening told his wife he had bought them. His wife delightedly asked if he had brought home the collar, whereupon he replied: "No, dear; I had it sent to my mother. You know, it is her birthday tomorrow."

HORSE RACES AT THE TAMPA STATE FAIR

Tampa, Sept. 21.—One of the most attractive features of the coming State Fair at Tampa will be the horse races. There will be a ten-day race meet, and the largest purses ever given in Florida will be awarded the winning horses. The best horses in the South will be at the Fair, and a large number of Florida horsemen will also be represented. A special invitation is extended to Florida horsemen to compete for the purses. The amusement attractions on the Range will also be the most novel and cleanest ever brought south. No gambling features will be allowed whatever. Fair work in every branch is progressing rapidly, and an immense attendance of home-seekers from other states is expected. The exhibit building—the largest building in Florida—is about completed, and the magnificent woman's building will be ready for use in a very few days. The stables, pens, poultry houses and other structures for exhibiting live stock will be the largest and most conveniently arranged ever seen at a southern state fair. Many counties are clamoring for exhibit space, and those that have not done so should apply for space at once.

"I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians with relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." W. A.
